RECONDITIONED CARS.
They say that our Used Car salesman show an unusual amount of enthusiasm in their work. Why shouldn't they? They see the Used Cars when they come in. They see the overhauling that is done and they know how much better the cars are. They KNOW that both the price and the price are right when the car is sold to them for sale. Why wouldn't they be enthusiastic?
Remember: A used car is only as good as the firm with which you deal.

Other posts he held were Secretary to H.M. office of works, chairman of the Board of Customs and Inland Revenue as well as of the Pacific Cable Board.]

NEW YORK BANK FAILURE

Assets Expected to Balance Liabilities.

New York, June 18.
The banking house of Knauth, Natch and Kuhne, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, which has a record of seventy years in Wall Street, has failed. A statement declares the assets are ample to meet obligations "provided they be administered wisely." The firm did a large business in travellers' letters of credit. A member estimated that about half a million dollars are thus invested. The firm's liabilities are stated to be eleven million dollars, and the assets in securities about the same.

INDIAN EQUALITY CLAIMS.

Proposed "Retaliatory Measures."

Bombay, June 18.
Veckatpati Raju has given notice of a motion in Assembly that steps should be taken to impress on the British Colonial office that if Indians in the Crown Colonies be denied British citizenship and rights of equality in treatment, the Indian Government will be compelled to take retaliatory measures and suspend further emigration of Indian labour to any British Colony whatsoever.

A TASK FOR THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING RACES.

London, June 18.
In a speech at a dinner of the Rhodes Scholarship Trust at Oxford, Mr. Baldwin said the civilisation of Western Europe was cracking. The whole world was consciously or unconsciously looking for salvation to the British Empire and the United States. If there was any building up to do in the world it was the English-speaking people in the long run who would have to do it, but the task would require the courage of Pitt and the faith of Lincoln.

A SUBMERSIBLE BATTLESHIP.

London, June 18.
It is reported that the new super-submarine will mount twelve-inch guns.
The super-submarine displaces 3,000 tons when submerged, and is reported to be propelled by electricity when submerged and steam on the surface and to cost, without armament, £220,000.

HOSPITAL FUND.

How You Can Help.

Have you yet sent in your $5 to the London Hospital Fund? We want Hongkong to be well represented in the response to the quincentennial appeal which is now being made on behalf of this most deserving institution.
In response to requests, we have now opened subscription lists at the Hongkong Club and the Helena May Institute. You can either subscribe by adding your name to either of these lists, or by sending in your donations to the Telegraph office.
We shall be pleased to send lists to other institutions which may care to act as collecting centres.
The London Hospital is doing a magnificent work amongst the sick and suffering, but it is in need of further funds to enable it to carry on its beneficent activities. You will not miss a $5 note—the Hospital will be extremely glad of it.

BAGPIPES IN ST. PAUL'S.

For the first time in the history of St. Paul's Cathedral, Scottish bagpipes were played within its walls the other day. The occasion was the annual service of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, held in the chapel of the Order in the south-west corner of the Cathedral.

A BARRACK-ROOM EPISODE.

Lieut. Corpl O'Flaherty and Pte McLoughlin.

EVIDENCE OF LIEUT. CORPL. McGAFFERY.

A District Court Martial assembled at Murray Barracks this morning, presided over by Major C. P. F. Warton, O.B.E., 24th. Bombardiers, for the trial of Private William McLoughlin, of the 2nd. Bn. King's Regiment, on three charges: disobeying an order of a superior officer, striking his superior officer, and resisting an escort. He pleaded "guilty" to the first charge only.
Lieut. Corpl O'Flaherty, 2nd King's, said he was in charge of No. 3 barrackroom. On the night of June 8th, about 10.15, the Orderly Corpl. came in to see lights out. The accused was sitting on a comrade's bed talking to him. The Orderly Corpl. ordered the accused to get up and go to his bed, switching the lights on. Witness now intervened, and told the accused that if he did not immediately go to bed he would be put in the guardroom.
The accused replied: "There is not a man here who can put me in the guardroom." Witness then went to the next room and obtained permission from Corpl. Dobbin to have Pte. McLoughlin placed under arrest. When he returned, McLoughlin asked what he was going to the guardroom for, adding: "You're a big fellow, aren't you?" He then struck witness in the face. Corpl. Dobbin thereupon seized the accused, who struggled. Three more men had to be called, and eventually accused was subdued and went along quietly.
The Orderly Corpl., Lieut. Corpl. McGaffery, corroborated, as did others present.
Giving evidence on his own behalf, the accused said he had gone to the canteen for a drink, and not being used to liquor it affected him. He was ordered out of the canteen by a Sergeant at 9.15, and went to the barrackroom. In No. 4 there was a gramophone going, and men were dancing. He joined in. Later, he went to his own room, No. 3, and sat on a comrade's bed as he was not feeling well. He remembered being told by Lieut. Corpl. McGaffery to put the lights out, and probably got excited after that, but he remembered nothing clearly.
Two comrades gave corroborative evidence.
The Prisoner's Friend, Lieut. F. C. Agar, M.C., 2nd King's, pleaded on the man's behalf that he probably did not know what he was doing. He was not used to alcohol, and the excitement of the dance possibly helped to send it to his head. The accused's record was a fine one. There was no previous trouble between him and any of the N.C.O.s.
After a short adjournment, the Court found the accused "guilty" on all three charges. The sentence will be promulgated in due course.

"GORJISTAN" CAPTAIN CHARGED.

No Passenger Certificate.

Captain J. Watson, master of the s.s. Gorjistan (owned by Mr. H.M.H. Nemaze) appeared before Comdr. Beckwith, at the Marine Court, this morning on two counts. Defendant was charged with arriving in the waters of the Colony on June 13th, carrying 77 passengers without a passenger certificate. He was further charged with failing to furnish the Harbour Master with such information as was required, contrary to the Shipping Ordinance, 1899.
Mr. H. C. Macnamara, who appeared for the defence, entered a plea of "not guilty" on both counts, and asked for a remand as he had only been instructed on Saturday and had not had time to go into the charges.
A remand was granted, the case being adjourned until Wednesday.

TRADE IN CHINA.

Special Protection Necessary.

London, June 17.
The Federation of British Industries, in the course of its representations to the Foreign Office regarding the Lucheng outrage, urges that drastic action is imperatively necessary to protect legitimate trade interests, both Chinese and foreign. The first step must be to secure the main trade routes from interference by bandits, rebels or irresponsible local authorities. It suggests that the special Gendarmerie might be instituted under orders of the Central Chinese Government, trained and commanded by competent foreign officers. (Reuter.)

TROUBLESOME TENANTS.

Demolition of Houses Resented.

RUTTER STREET FIGHT.

To resist eviction by the new owners, the tenants of Rutter Street, who have been given notice to quit consequent on an intention to demolish the block, have improved on the obstructionist methods they adopted last week, by engaging in a fight with a body of men engaged by the new owners to protect the army of workers. Before this, the possibility of imminent trouble had compelled the new owners to apply for police protection, but this was only effective so long as the constables detailed for this work were on the spot. As soon as they were withdrawn yesterday morning, and their place taken by "braves" employed by the owners, the fight commenced. When workmen endeavoured to pull down the roofing, regardless of the presence of the inmates, they were interfered with. Doors were barricaded and the place commenced with an exchange of missiles. Two foks of a grocer's shop and a woman were injured, the latter so seriously that she had to be taken to the Government Civil Hospital in an unconscious state.
The return of the Indian constables restored the situation to something like order, but up till last night the workers had not returned.
The Landlords' Version.
An entirely different version of the affair was this morning heard by a Telegraph reporter. Whilst agreeing on the cause and events which ensued from it, the landlords state that no "braves" were employed. About thirty workmen were put on to start the demolition of the houses, and they were interfered with by the tenants, who, notwithstanding the fact that they had been offered alternative accommodation on another site by the Government, have insistently stuck on to their houses after the expiration of the usual notice. The actual fighting, it is said, was almost exclusively left by the community of this place to their women folk the males contenting themselves with breaking up the chimneys with the missiles to throw at the workmen in the street below. It is further said that each of the workers was surrounded by at least half a dozen women and it could scarcely be regarded as cowardice if, under the circumstances, they beat a retreat from the scene. Tenants of the two streets number no less than a thousand and the proportion of womenfolk who engaged themselves in the fray must have been great.
No attempt to resume the work of demolition was made to-day. The Indian guards supplied by the police are still in the locality. Interesting developments may be expected to the issue from the present impasse.

Three Arrests.

Three men arrested in connection with the fight were charged before the Magistrate this morning with disorderly conduct, and were remanded.

DISASTROUS TYPHOON.

Thousands Homeless in Philippines.

Loss of life, heavy property damage, destruction of homes and stripping of farm products—That was the report to Manila on June 11th from southern island provinces, the result of severe typhoons that swept through the islands during the previous week.
Seven persons were killed, thousands rendered homeless, more than P1,500,000 damage done and six boats were sunk in a typhoon through Samar province. Chief Ventura of the executive bureau was advised yesterday.
In Albay province 500 houses were blown down in the June 3 storm, one concrete and four wooden bridges were destroyed and more than 20 kilometers of road were washed out.
RAILROAD DAMAGED.
Railroad track and bridges were also damaged to the extent of P25,000. Bamboo wharves at Legaspi and Tabaco were washed out to sea by the heavy waves. Damage was P10,000.
Abaca and coconut plantations were damaged both in Samar and in Albay. Loss was estimated at P60,000 in Albay. The damage will hasten stripping of hemp fibre, the only course to take to save the fibres from deterioration.
The Samar homeless are suffering from hunger and want of clothing. Governor Sulse and Representative Abenois advised Ventura.
Worse reports of storm effects are expected this week.
Insurance and from the calamity fund was asked but had to be refused by Ventura. The executive bureau chief advised the provincial board to vote P2,000 from provincial funds from the purchase of rice and clothing for the destitute.
No loss of life was reported in Albay although one town, Catanduanes, believed to have been hard hit, had not been heard from. Telephone and telegraph lines and the electric light plant in Legaspi suffered in the storm.
Schools were badly damaged in Samar and the opening of school was probably delayed, according to the bureau of education.

VAGRANT AMERICAN.

Finds a Job in Hongkong.

Arthur Hulse, the American whose case was thought to be deserving of assistance by the Magistrate, appeared again before Mr. J. R. Wood this morning, on remand, on a charge of vagrancy.
The police stated that a job has been secured for the defendant, who was advised to accept it and to give up the drink. His conduct for the last week was described as being good.
His Worship delivered a homily on the importance of turning over a new leaf, and the defendant, as he left the Court, expressed his sincere thanks for the Magistrate's kindly words.

MERCY RECOMMENDED.

Constable Who Killed His Wife.

A Chinese police constable appeared before Mr. Justice Gompertz, at the Criminal Sessions, this morning, charged with manslaughter on May 16th. The jury were Messrs. J. D. Kinnaird, F.F. Duckworth, J. F. F. Fisher, F. Scuter, F. J. S. de Loureiro, W. J. J. Sousa and C. des V. Sullivan.
From the Crown's case, as outlined by Mr. H. K. Holmes, it appeared that accused's wife went to No. 7 Police Station to ask her husband for money. There was a quarrel, in the course of which the woman threw her baby on the ground. This angered accused. He struggled with his wife and kicked her, as a result of which the woman had to be taken to the G.C.H. where she subsequently died.
Accused told the Court that when his wife came to him for money he had none. This so enraged her that she threw her child to the ground. There was a quarrel, during the course of which deceased fell down. Accused did not want a scene in front of the Police Station, and he kicked his wife twice. He had no intention of seriously injuring her.
The jury returned a verdict of "Guilty" with a strong recommendation to mercy.
Mr. Holmes mentioned that accused had a good character.
Prisoner will be sentenced to-morrow morning.

IMPERIAL CONCEPTION.

London, June 16.

The final article by the special correspondent of the Morning Post says that it is impossible, anywhere in the Far East, to resist the impression that a clash of colour is imminent. An adequate fleet, with an adequate base would do far more to secure Britain's interest in Asia than all the diplomatic notes of Christendom, hence the desire to make Singapore a great naval centre. It is a great Imperial conception; it will also give renewed strength to the British position in India.

Commenting editorially on the situation in the Far East in connection with the articles of its special correspondent, the Morning Post recognises Japan's need for expansion and says England not only understands, but to a certain extent sympathises, with Japan's position. It points out that Japan's naval and military position is regarded almost impregnable by the Washington Government. Ruthless expansion, however, means war, and a country like Japan stands to lose heavily by even a successful war. The astute statesmen of Tokyo have doubtless not lost sight of the lesson of the Great War, that military strength and strong geographical position can gain battles, but do not always secure victory. Pressing as Japan needs are, she will hesitate a long time before she seeks to meet them by the terrible expedient of a world conflagration.

Continuing, the Morning Post says that any country which hopes to control China ought to remember Napoleon's Russian campaign. The political importance of China and the pressing character of Japan's economic and political problems justify alike the step of the Government in fortifying Singapore and the pre-occupation of Australasia in matters of Imperial defence. England is most anxious to remain on terms of closest friendship with Japan, but it would be madness to relinquish our watch of all parts of the world where our interests are concerned. Singapore is destined to become one of the Imperial water-towers.

THE FRENCH ROYALISTS.

Paris, June 16.

The intense interest through the country was reflected in a packed Chamber to listen to the debate on the Imperial policy of the Government, concerning which there were five interpellations, the central point being the question of the activity of the Royalists and the introduction of Fascist methods in France.

The Communists reproached the Government for openly protecting the Royalist organisation Camelots du Roi, and imprisoning members of the extreme left. M. Caudan said the Government made life still more difficult for the workers by the occupation of the Ruhr. M. Polignac, whose speech was loudly cheered, stoutly defended his policy and declared the Government would fight as vigorously as those who attempted to bring about a monarchist restoration as it did those who endeavoured to force a social revolution. Reiterating his former policy, he ended on the majority not to allow themselves to be misled by the eternal songs about the brotherhood of peoples.

The Chamber finally passed a vote of confidence in the Government by 329 to 209.

OUR FACES CHANGING.

Home Truths by A Noted Scientist.

Evolution is not working in the direction of super-men, with swollen heads and small faces. In some countries there is positive evidence that the brains are growing smaller.

In an address on "The Machinery of Human Evolution" at the Royal Institution recently, Sir Arthur Keith, F.R.S., the famous anthropologist, said changes were now taking place in the human world more rapidly than at any former period—but the days of super-men were not yet.

Sir Arthur, one of the most brilliant scientists of the days himself went into the jungle recently to study the brains of gibbons and gorillas.

The brain, he said, was the most variable in size and quality of the parts of the body, and from investigation he had come to the conclusion that it was not increasing.

"I do not think," said Sir Arthur, "that one person in 50 of the present population uses his brain to half its capacity."

In fact, I would say that most of us have more brains than we know what to do with."

Were we getting taller or shorter in stature?

During the war it was found that the average stature for a man was 5ft. 6in.—the same as in the neolithic period. The average for men leading professional lives was 5ft. 8in.

"We have ceased to speak of the 13th part of our population," said Sir Arthur, "but it is still with us." It was cold comfort to know that every industrial country of the world was no worse and no better off in this respect than we were.

OVERWORKED "INNARDS."

"We give our digestive tracts no rest," he declared. "When we are not whipping them up with patent sauces we are seeking to soothe their rebellions by treating them with patent pills."

Sir Arthur said he was convinced that certain characteristics which were easily recognised in the bodies of a large proportion of our modern population, were of recent origin.

The most plastic bone in the human body was that under the gums in which the teeth were rooted, and it was here that the most marked changes were to be noted.

In quite 30 per cent of the people now in Great Britain this bone, instead of spreading outwards, and giving the roof of the mouth a wide and low vault, as in prehistoric races, grew in a vertical direction, giving the palate a narrow and high arch.

In these contracted palates there was no longer room for the normal number of teeth. Such as appeared were crowded; the wisdom teeth often failed to cut or were absent altogether. The lower front teeth, instead of meeting the upper in an edge-to-edge bite, passed behind them, giving rise to the prevalent modern "sissors" bite.

The recession of the teeth gave the modern nose and chin an undue prominence; the tendency of all modern changes was towards the production of a long and narrow face.

The "adonoid" type of face, with which medical men were so familiar in modern children, was unknown in prehistoric times.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO.

A Glance at Our Files.

(June 8-June 14, 1901.)

NEW VOLUNTEER RANGE.

The new Volunteer Range at Happy Valley was opened on Saturday afternoon by H. E. the Governor, who was accompanied by Sir John Carrington, G.M.G. Commandant of the H.K.V.C. and Lieut. Blake A.D.C. The road to the hills will evidently prove the endurance of the volunteers in marching uphill (very much uphill) under a hot sun. Sir John Carrington asked His Excellency to declare the Range open, which he did in a short speech, referring to the uphill walk to the hills and the character of the country as likely to be of service, being something of the nature of conditions in actual warfare. In fact, we should think the amount of liquid evaporated from the men could hardly be exceeded in service conditions, as we hear (but do not vouch for the fact) that one man had his carbine washed out of his hands. His Excellency concluded the opening of the hills by firing at the target at 200 yds. kneeling, and the marker promptly signalled a bull.

DEFENCE OF COLONY.

A garrison of at least five thousand men is the very smallest force that could make this Colony reasonably safe from a sudden and determined raid, not necessarily for the purpose of conquest and permanent occupation, but for the simple purpose of destruction. The south side of this island is absolutely without defence, it is most easily accessible and the hours between dark and dawn would amply suffice to make a clean sweep of everything of any value to a fleet in the place. We surely ought to give our possible enemies credit for the same amount of enterprise of which we know ourselves to be capable and which we have often displayed. Will any naval or military officer with any knowledge of military history, venture to assert that if this place was in the occupation of an enemy with whom we were at war, a garrison of two thousand men would be sufficient to protect it from a coup de main?

We offer a prize of fifty dollars for the best sketch of a project for the capture of this island by a hostile force, Russian or French or both combined, not with a view to permanent occupation, but with a view to the destruction of the Naval Yard, Arsenal and Barracks and the retirement of the hostile force to its ships, the actual position of affairs at the moment in Hongkong and the actual strength of our fleet and its distribution being assumed, and war declared, or about to be declared.

THE PLAGUE.

We hear that the great exodus of Chinese which is taking place from the Colony is affecting many of the firms which employ Chinese labour. It is the better paid men who can afford to go their villages to escape the plague, and these men are the most valuable ones to their employers and consequently the most missed. It is a great pity that these people cannot be brought to see that they gain nothing by going from one plague-stricken spot to another. If the inhabitants of villages to which they flee had a grain of sense, they would pack these very undesirable visitors back to Hongkong post haste, but then the Chinaman does not possess common sense as regards sanitation, and so the plague is spread far and wide.

THE BAKU FIELDS.

Soviet Oil Deals and the "Shell."

I have obtained, states the writer of London Outlook in the Manchester Guardian Commercial, positive confirmation of the fact, not generally reported in the press, that the Soviet Government has made important contracts for the export of oil this year from the Baku fields. A deal was first arranged between the Soviet agents and Messrs. Shell and Co. for the purchase of 30,000 tons of kerosene. Messrs. Shell and Co. are acting presumably for the Merchant Trading Co. who have been marketing prime white Russian kerosene for some time.

The fact that an independent oil company was manifesting such enterprise roused the "Shell" Group to aggressive action. The Shell marketing company closed with the Soviet Government for 70,000 tons of kerosene at 65s. per ton f.o.b. Baku, with an option of 130,000 tons more—in other words, taking the whole exportable supply of Russian kerosene for at least a year. This, in turn, has roused the indignation of various associations of expropriated Russian oil proprietors, who regard the deal as "trading with the enemy." The Franco-Belgian Syndicate for the defence of French and Belgian interests in Russia has voted a resolution requesting the Royal Dutch-Shell to cease dealings with the Soviet Government.

The question has been brought before the oil companies' International Defence Committee, of which Royal Dutch-Shell is a member, and of which Sir Henry Deterding, if I remember rightly, is chairman. All the members of that Committee had solemnly sworn in Paris, last September, that negotiations with the Soviet Government should be conducted in common, and by representatives unanimously elected. Sir Henry Deterding is, however, technically correct in agreeing that this oath referred only to negotiations for the return of oil properties, not for the purchase of oil products. And he has frankly declared that the operations of the independent oil company make it impossible for the "Shell" to refrain any longer from itself buying oil.

SEMI-DETACHED HOUSES.

We are very pleased to see that Mr. Fung Wa-chun has taken up the suggestion that we made in these columns on May 31st, that if the Government were thinking of changing the form of Chinese houses to be erected in the Colony, it would be better to insist on the breaking up of long rows and making them semi-detached. Semi-detached houses must be the most healthy and the best solution of our present difficulty. The Chinese, our official bugbear, are in favour of them and, therefore, in case in which the Chinese hold sensible views for heaven's sake do not let us have the matter shelved. Hongkong cannot be pulled down and rebuilt in a day but with sensible building regulations, a few good typhoons, and the condemnation of existing insanitary dwellings by an honest inspector of buildings, a few years may bring about a great change for the better.

Tea

If you pay a fair price for your tea and buy from a firm you know, it ought to be a foregone conclusion that the tea you get was good when it left the factory. No special credit is due to the tea-firm for that!

Most people are learning to reserve their enthusiasm for the tea which is still good when it reaches the tea-pot!

They use Brooke Bond tea packed in the vacuum tin, which keeps the flavour in and the tea-destructive climate out. Do you?

DEATH OF MR. T. W. ROBERTSON.

Further Details.

Particulars concerning the death of Mr. T. W. Robertson, a former resident of Hongkong (an announcement of which reached here by cable from Victoria B. C. on 25th May), came by the s.s. President Jackson yesterday. The cause of death was aneurism of the heart. Mr. Robertson was in his usual health at the pier, meeting Hongkong friends on the evening of May 22nd. On returning home that night he looked to bed and quite unexpectedly passed away the following night.

The following particulars are given in one of the Victoria B. C. papers.—There passed away at his home, 1352 St. Patrick Street, Oak Bay, on the 23rd inst., Mr. Thomas Watson Robertson, lately of Kowloon, Hongkong, of which place he had been a highly respected and well-known resident for the past twenty-one years, where he had filled the position of Engineer Superintendent of the Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co., and the Star Ferries. Retiring from this position in April, 1922, he arrived in Victoria in May of the same year, taking up his residence at the above address. Mr. Robertson was born in Dundee on January 5, 1865, and on completion of his training as an engineer, came out to Canada, making Victoria his home for some two or three years prior to leaving for the Orient. Deceased leaves a widow, two sons, Kenneth, attending college at Sheffield; Allen, at home, and one daughter, Elinore, also at home; one brother, David, living in Vallejo, Calif., and three sisters, Mrs. Smith, of Seattle; Mrs. Pease, of Vancouver, and Mrs. Anderson, residing in this city.

TELEPHONES IN AUSTRALIA.

A motion agreed to by the Interstate Conference of the Australian Postal Electricians' Union held at Melbourne favoured the manufacture of telephone and telegraph equipment, including telephones, in Australia. Delegates maintained that if given the opportunity by the provision of proper facilities, Australian postal electricians would be able to produce any article used in connexion with telephones. The argument that the proposal would involve high capital cost to purchase and set up the machinery would not hold, as many industries against which the same argument had been used were now in a flourishing condition. If the policy of the union were adopted by the department, the way would be paved to a flourishing industry.

WHAT IS FLYOSAN?

It is a new discovery in insecticides. It draws bugs out of hiding-places promptly and leaves no trace behind-no odour-no stain-no harm.

FLYOSAN is a clear amber liquid which you apply with an ordinary garden sprayer.

The odour is pleasantly aromatic and prevails away quickly when the windows are open.

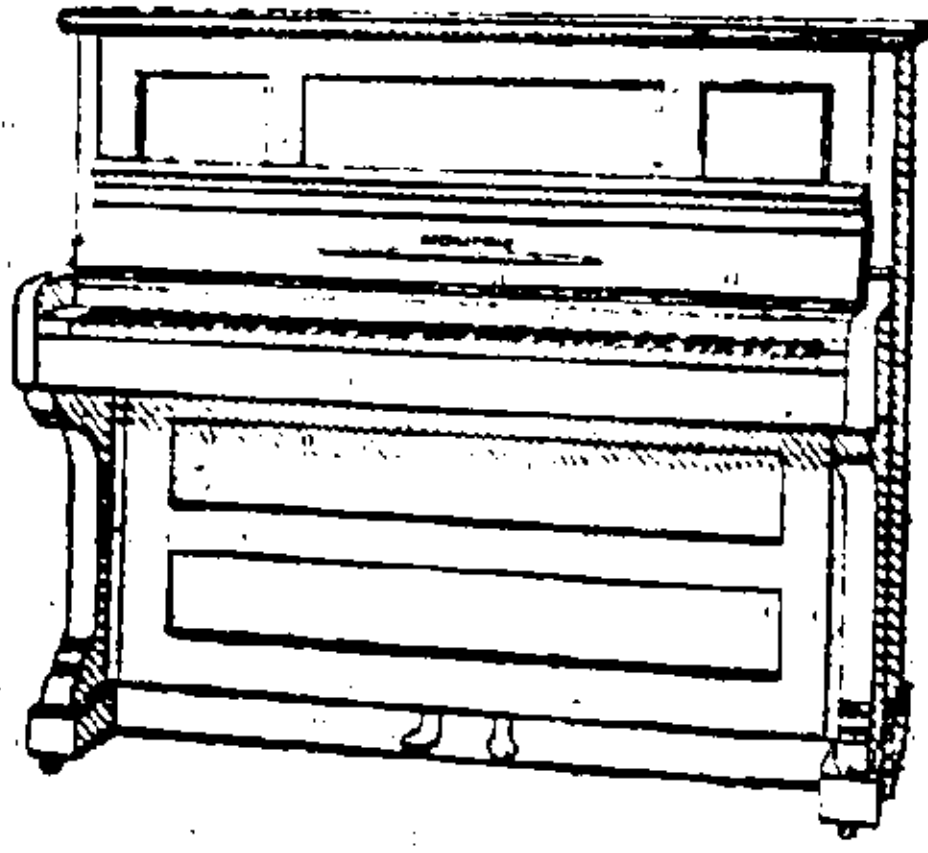

FLYOSAN is a clear, amber liquid of pleasing odour, when sprayed about, it causes insects to come from their hiding places and kills them quickly without harming another thing. It covers the entire range of insect life in a most thorough and comprehensive manner. FLYOSAN quickly and neatly destroys flies, mosquitoes, roaches, ants, moths, bed-bugs, fleas, lice, spiders, "thousand leggers" and many other insects.

HONGKONG, 18th June, 1923.

ANOTHER WORRY.

Hongkong has lately come more to the notice of globe-trotters as a fine place to visit and a—yes, a health resort! Well, we have not got any particular quarrel with the climate—that, thank goodness, is not subject to much alteration by human agency—and we trust that the wealthy tourists who visit this part of the world will continue to stop here for a while, buy up the Colony's stocks of drawn-thread work and curios, over-pay the rickshaw and chair coolies, and sail away satisfied that they have been for a spell in one of the finest ports of the Far East. We only hope, in the interests of the continued brisk circulation of our currency, that those who contemplate a trip to Hongkong for health reasons will not peruse beforehand either of two annual reports that were issued last week—by the Medical Officer of Health and by the Captain Superintendent of Police. We have already dealt with the different features of the health report, but shall add here that, however much the local residents might have become used to terms like cholera, plague, small-pox, cerebro-spinal meningitis, and tuberculosis—and the statistics which accompany them—equanimity is more than one can normally expect from outsiders.

As regards crime, the year 1922 seems to have made the definite transition to the new conditions, with all violent crimes on the increase. The statistics we extracted from the report issued last week disclosed a state of affairs that must give nervous folk cause for alarm. Without assuming the role of Dickens' fat boy, we can state that we fear the prevalence of serious wrongdoing in the Colony will never fall below its present plane, and might increase considerably in time to come. Armed robberies and murders are decidedly more common nowadays, and so are the activities of those who smuggle firearms and ammunition into the Colony. As these branches of crime are closely connected, the outlook is not very pleasant.

All the police can do—even with the large increase of personnel effected last year—is to keep the criminals from sending up the statistics to a more startling level, and for this we must be devoutly thankful. The main cause of the trouble here is shown to be the disturbed conditions prevailing in the Canton neighbourhood. One wonders how long things will continue like that on the mainland, for every outbreak of lawlessness is reflected here. Judged by present indications it might be a matter of many years before stable conditions prevail. What with the housing problem, soaring prices of necessities, expensive and independent labour, menace of disease, and increase of crimes of violence, Hongkong can hardly be termed a health resort for those who have to sojourn here any length of time.

Typhoid Fever.

Although the disease in recent years has not assumed serious epidemic proportions, typhoid fever is always with us. So says the Medical Officer of Health in his annual report. There were 139 cases, notified during the year. The probability is that there were more occurrences than this because it is the common habit of Chinese to leave the Colony for their native places when sick. As to the cause of the disease, Dr. Pearce says the eating of vegetables grown by Chinese methods is a possible source of infection, but the Chinese are not in the habit of eating uncooked food, and Europeans soon learn the danger of eating salad. "The more probable cause of the cases," he says, "is the carrier who either spreads infection by handling food or indirectly through flies which can contaminate food by carrying infective material from the buckets of the dry privies which may have been used by carriers." The opinion is expressed that anti-typhoid inoculation would greatly lessen the incidence of the disease, and Dr. Pearce says that all new arrivals who intend to reside here would be well advised to adopt this precaution. These observations are of the utmost importance. In particular the community should be warned against the eating of raw vegetables unless they know for a certainty that these have been raised under sanitary conditions.

Health Publicity.

It appears to us that much of the good advice which the Medical Officer gives in his annual reports goes unheeded simply because it is not sufficiently brought to the notice of the public. During specially serious outbreaks of infectious diseases, every possible measure is adopted to bring to the notice of the public the precautions which should be taken. Preventive treatment is also given free, as during the small-pox and meningitis epidemics. All that is very wise and very necessary. But we should like to see occasionally issued by the M.O.H. a small pamphlet, which could be translated into Chinese as well, setting forth certain elementary precautions which should be observed by all residents of the Colony. These could be in the form of a series of "Don'ts" with a few words giving reasons, etc. Prevention is better than cure; and the good health of a community is its greatest asset. So we suggest a little systematic Public Health Publicity. Could it not be arranged? The time, cost and labour involved would not be great. The benefits might be incalculable.

FEWER MILLIONAIRES.
Washington, June 6.—A decrease of 12 individuals with annual incomes of $1,000,000 or more as compared with 1920 is noted in statistics on the payment of income tax payments for 1921 made public to-day by the internal revenue bureau. Of 6,662,176 firms and individuals filing returns for 1921, only 21 had incomes exceeding a million, compared with 206 in 1915.

DAY BY DAY.

IF YOU HAVE NOT THE FORCE OF CHARACTER TO MAKE AN ENEMY, YOU WILL NEVER MAKE A FRIEND.

The silk which left here by the P. & O. s.s. Kashgar on 16th, May was delivered in Marseilles on 16th, June.

The health return for the past two days shows two cases of plague and one each of small-pox and enteric fever. The last-named was British; the others, Chinese.

The silk shipped per s.s. President Madison, which sailed from this port 10 a.m. on May 22, arrived in New York at 5 a.m. on June 14. The total time taken in transit was 22 calendar days and 19 hours.

The Hongkong University Union's magazine for June has made its appearance and it is quite a bright and snappy number. Besides many matters of interest to Varsity students, it includes a number of well-written articles, humorous and otherwise.

Armed men who broke into a fuel shop at No. 204B, Canton Road, Kowloon, on Saturday evening, opened the safe and extracted a sum of $500. The inmates were, according to the usual procedure, bound and gagged after being intimidated with revolvers.

The motor ship Wah Ku, 800 tons, which went ashore at the entrance of Su Nam Chan Channel on Wednesday night in consequence of her rudder having been carried away in a rough sea, returned to the Colony under tow and has gone into dock for repairs.

ABOARD A JUNK.

Crew Charged with Piracy.

The three members of the crew of a junk engaged in the fish trade, appeared before Mr. Justice Gompertz, at the Criminal Sessions, this morning, charged with piracy (or, alternatively, robbery) and assault.

Mr. H. K. Holmes, outlining the case of the Crown, explained to the jury that it found that the crime was committed outside the waters of the Colony, that would be piracy, if they found prisoners guilty of committing the offence within the waters of the Colony, that would be robbery. Aboard the junk in which accused were employed were the master, his wife, two very small children, the master's brother and the master's nephew. On May 2nd, the master took a cargo of fish to Macao and sold it for $500. He also had another $100 or so aboard, making about $600 in all. During the night of May 2nd-3rd, the master's family were asleep and accused were in charge of the vessel. Between two and three o'clock, when near Lan Tau, the family were aroused by being attacked by the accused. One of the accused set upon the master with a chopper, another attacked the master's brother, and his wife was struck with a piece of wood, all three sustaining serious injuries. Having overcome the family, the three accused took the money and a quantity of clothing and escaped in the junk's dinghy.

The junk was steered to Lan Tau, where the master's father's junk was lying at anchor. Assistance was obtained and the three injured people were subsequently taken to hospital. On May 8th, one of the prisoners was arrested on the Cheung Chau launch. The two others were traced to Macao. They were sent back and arrested upon their arrival in Hongkong.

The defence was that one of the prisoners dropped overboard a quantity of fish. This so annoyed the master that he struck him and knocked him into the sea. Accused swam back to the junk and struck the master in return. This story was borne out by the other two prisoners. They denied that they had stolen anything and alleged that master had falsely accused them.

The case is proceeding.

LAWN BOWLS.

Saturday's League Results.

The Police Recreation Club created a big surprise in bowling circles on Saturday by defeating Taikoo No. 1 in the League by three points. Their victory was mainly due to some exceptionally fine bowling on the part of Inspector W. G. Gerrard, who was up by no less than 15 points on the second rink. The other two rinks were won by Taikoo, but the Police, by obtaining an aggregate of 35 points to 32, secured the League points.

Kowloon Dock sustained their first defeat of the season, their victors being the strong Taikoo No. 2 team, who are now only two points behind their dock rivals with two matches in hand. It was a very keen match and in view of the positions occupied by the two teams in the League, created a great amount of interest.

The local Derby between the neighbouring Kowloon teams resulted in a victory for the Bowling Green by 21 points. The Cricket Club have disappointed lately owing to their failure to maintain the promising form shown earlier in the season.

The Craigengower team has shown considerable improvement these last few weeks and it was no surprise to see them defeat the Civil Service. The fact that they won by no less than 33 points was due, not so much to exceptional play on their part, as to the weakness of their opponents.

The Kowloon Dock team still maintain their position at the head of the League table, but are strongly challenged by Taikoo No. 2, who, so far, have not lost a match. The Police are bracketed third with the K. B. G. C. and Taikoo No. 1. Craigengower go up one, and the K. C. C. and Civil Service occupy the last two positions.

Saturday results were as under:

LEAGUE TENNIS.

Saturday's Games.

In the "A" Division of the Tennis League on Saturday, the Club de Recreio obtained the verdict over the Civil Service, who are still without a win. The scores were 51 to 48. Details—

Yvanovich and Finna beat Lane and Allen 10-1; beat Henderson and Sheppard 8-3; lost to Townsend and Wilson 3-8.

Noro-ha, and Ribeiro lost to Lane and Allen 5-6; lost to Henderson and Sheppard 4-7; lost to Townsend and Wilson 3-8.

Marques and Lopes beat Lane and Allen 10-1; beat Henderson and Sheppard 4-7; lost to Townsend and Wilson 1-10.

H. K. C. C. v. K. C. C.
In the "A" Division, the Hongkong Cricket Club were at home to the Kowloon C. C. and had no difficulty in winning, the scores being 67 to 32.

The Club de Recreio has conceded a walk-over to the Indian Recreation Club in the "A" Division.

An Important Match.

The C. R. C. and I. R. C. "A" Division match is to be played on the former's ground at 5.15 p.m. on Wednesday. Much depends on this match, for if the home side is victorious, then H. K. C. C., C. R. C. and I. R. C. will enter upon a triangular contest for League honours.

The Indians will start favourites and seem likely to win. With the exception of their 3-game victory over H. K. C. C., they have been winning their matches with ease. Their side will include A. H. Rumiashu, who has not yet made an appearance in "A" matches.

The teams have only twice met before. In 1921, the Chinese won by a solitary game, whilst last year the Indians reversed the verdict.

K. C. C. "A" v. Club de Recreio.

In the "B" Division, the Club de Recreio won this match by 52 games to 47.

AN UNATTENDED BED.

Military Hospital Patient Who Disobeyed.

Major C. P. F. Warton, O.B.E., 24th Bombay Grenadiers, presided over a District Court Martial at Murray Barracks this morning for the trial of Private George Brown, 2nd Bn. King's Regiment, who was charged with disobeying the lawful command of a superior officer. He pleaded "not guilty."

Corporal Howarth, R. A. M. C., said he was N.C.O. in charge of No. 3 ward in the Military Hospital. On the morning of April 5th there were some men who were marked up still lying in bed, including the accused. He went round telling them to get up and make up their beds. He returned about ten minutes later to find several of them, including the accused, still lying on their beds, and repeated the order. All obeyed except the accused. He refused repeated orders to make up his bed, saying he was due for special treatment that day. Witness then reported to the Chief Wardmaster, Sergeant Major Harlan, and accused was placed under arrest.

Corroborative evidence was given by an R. A. M. C. Private, who in reply to a question by L. Ridding, M. C., 2nd Kings, (the Prisoner's Friend) said that the N. C. O. previous to Corpl. Howarth had sometimes allowed the men to keep their beds down.

The accused gave evidence to the effect that on days of special treatment he, as well as the others had been excused from making up their beds.

The Court found the accused "guilty," and the sentence passed on him will be promulgated in due course.

DRAGON BOATS.

Exciting Races at North Point.

Large crowds were attracted to the Ming Yuen Gardens yesterday afternoon by the holding of dragon boat races in celebration of the Chinese festival which falls on the 5th day of the 5th moon. Four boats, each manned by about 24 rowers, took part in the contests over a course off North Point, and the result was one win each for Yau-mai and Shaokwan districts, which contributed two crews each to the event. The entrance fee for each boat is $100 and each member of the successful crew obtains a cash prize of $5 on each day of the contest. In addition he is very generously provided with roast pork and other goodly things. The losers, a Telegraph man was informed, would have to be content with what they could obtain in the way of eatables. With the attractive prize offered, there was much enthusiasm displayed in the contests. The beating of tom-toms and the encouraging cries from the crews as they churned up the water caused great excitement amongst the spectators who added their voices to the general pandemonium.

To-day the same boats are again taking part in other contests. A new departure in made this year in the holding of separate races for Aberdeen village, the syndicate managing this having no connection, we are informed, with that which is holding the races at North Point.

REMARKABLE MURDER CASE.

Curious Hospital Coincidence.

A rather remarkable murder case commenced before the Chief Justice, at the Criminal Sessions this morning. A man is charged with the murder of his son under peculiar conditions. The Crown's case (conducted by Mr. A. Dyer Ball) is that accused jumped into the harbour with his small son in his arms. Some boat women rescued the pair from a watery grave, but when the child was taken out of the water he was unconscious and had to be taken to hospital for treatment. By a curious coincidence the child's mother was a patient in the same hospital. The mother discovered this and asked to be allowed to go downstairs to see her son. This she was allowed to do, and then she wanted the child brought up to her ward. Her request was granted. About eleven o'clock a few hours after the little one was admitted—the ward man found the youngster to be in a critical condition and went for the doctor. When she returned the child was dead. The father is being defended by Mr. N. I. Brewer.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph.")

British Made Cars.

Sir.—In the report of the annual meeting of the Hongkong Automobile Association I was very much interested in reading the President's speech and his strong appeal to the members to support Home products by buying British-made cars.

Mr. Bernard may not be aware of the fact that the Minerva, which he owns, is Belgium-made, and not British. The Minerva is manufactured in Belgium and is imported into Great Britain by Minerva Motors, Ltd., Chertsey Street, London, W.C.

I shall be very glad if you could find space in your paper for this letter.

Yours, etc.

CANADA'S LOSS OF POPULATION.
Growing anxiety is being shown in Canada at the steady loss of population to the United States. According to the Winnipeg Free Press, 5,000 people left that city alone for the United States during the past winter and the Premier of Quebec has also been expressing concern over the migration southwards of French Canadians. The 1920 census showed that over 1,100,000 of the foreign born population of the United States were of Canadian birth.

MOTOR BUSES FOR SHANGHAI.

New Company Issues Prospectus.

Shanghai is soon to have a motor bus service, the China General Omnibus Co. (managers Messrs. Arnold and Co.) having just issued its prospectus.

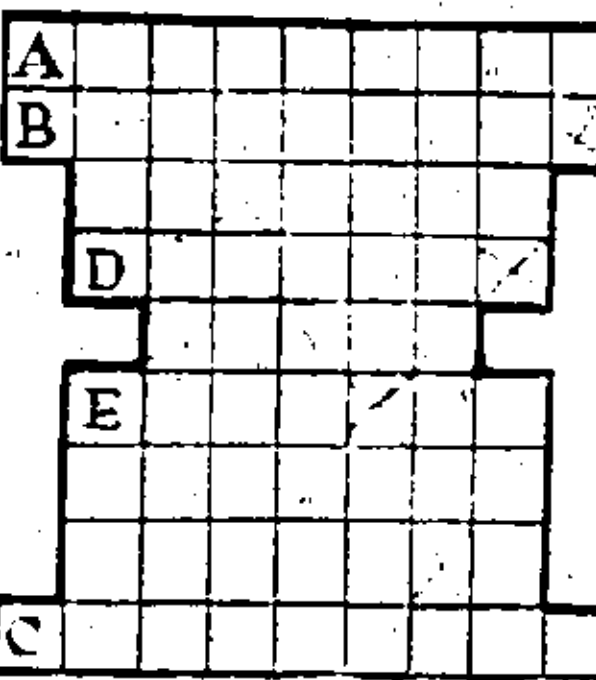

The company proposes at the outset to purchase a fleet of 30 motor omnibuses, of the best and most modern type procurable. Their technical representative will at once visit England and America with this object and he will at the same time engage the services of an expert traffic superintendent and a maintenance superintendent. The company does not anticipate that 1st. and 2nd. class coaches will be utilized by the poorer class of Chinese, as the fares will not be as low as those obtainable for other means of transport. The company relies for its success upon the foreign and Chinese members of the public who wish to travel as comfortably and rapidly as possible without being overcrowded, due regard being paid to safety and to the rights of other users of the roads. It is the intention to provide the public with rapid, smooth, regular and comfortable transport at a moderate cost, and it will be the aim to prevent overcrowding and to provide every passenger with a seat. Operations will be commenced on four routes and a regular six minute service will be provided thereon.

The maximum fare permitted by the Council is ten cents per mile for 1st. class and five cents per mile for 2nd. class.

The company anticipates that no first class fare on any route now authorized will exceed 20 cents or second class fare 10 cents per trip.

The capital of the company is £1,000,000 and the proposed first issue is £500,000, and the fact that the directors are applying for shares to the value of £100,000 indicates that they personally have every confidence in the success of the undertaking. Profits are estimated at 12½ per cent. per annum and the calculations appear to have been made on a very conservative basis.

If your glasses are in need of changes, adjustments or repairs, send them to the Hongkong Optical Co., successors to Clark & Co., refracting and manufacturing opticians (the originators of manufacturing Toric lenses in the colony) located in 53, Queen's Road Central. REINDEER IN ALASKA.

Beginning with 10 animals in 1891, the total of reindeer imported into Alaska reached 1,280 in 1902. The increase has been rapid and the total of reindeer now in the territory is variously estimated at 12,000 to 250,000 besides which about 100,000 have been killed for food and clothing. It is believed that the grazing available is sufficient for 3,000,000.

Sir Ian Hamilton on Work of British Legion.

"Making things safe for the kids," supplied General Sir Ian Hamilton with a subject for his speech at the opening recently of the Cleithropes (Lince) branch of the British Legion.

Sir Ian said that no fewer than 330,000 children lost their fathers, and of that number 18,000 had since then lost their mothers, and that several thousands of them had found their way into the workhouse.

That was before the Legion set to work. They had now cleared all these children out of the workhouse, and Sir Ian went on to explain that it had been done largely through the United Services Fund which has been formed to disburse the canteen millions.

Ten clearing houses had been set up from which the children were boarded out, and £15,000 have been spent under this head. When the children reached a certain age, say fourteen or fifteen, the Fund shouldered the responsibility of starting them in after-life—and was prepared, so far as it could, to pay their apprenticeship fees, etc.

"We are not ambitious," continued the general. "We don't aim at turning them into dukes and duchesses. We have no ambition to increase the numbers of an ill-starred class. All our modest means will run to to get the kids about as good an upbringing as the father might have been able to afford had he not been killed, or had the war not intervened to upset his career."

The money spent on this particular "stunt" is £50,000, and the number of cases assisted has been 3,261.

"We don't go in for scholarships because we don't aim at stars. We want enlightenment spread generally around and not concentrated on forty or fifty precocious darlings who nine times out of ten become used up old cinders by the time they are twenty."

"Any possible influence I have will be used to keep back the 'hot air kid' who boastfully recites before he is two years old. My name is Norval—the Grampian hills, or, better still, 'The boy stood on the burning deck. He ought to have a rest; he ought to have nothing but holidays and a little gentle house cleaning and heaping the lady of the house, whether or no she's his mother, till he's seven—that's the way to make him take practical notice and enjoy life at the same time."

A HAPSBURG ISLAND.

Coeur-de-Lion Memories in Jugo-Slav Lawsuit.

Prague: The beautiful small island of Lacroia, which lies about half a mile from the shore near Ragusa, in Dalmatia, figures in a case heard recently in the Jugo-Slav courts.

Lacroia is the island on which Richard Coeur de Lion was shipwrecked as he was returning from the Holy Land, and in gratitude for being saved he built a monastery on it. More recently it has had two unhappy Royal owners, Emperor Maximilian of Mexico, and the ill-fated Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria; and it is the latter's daughter, Elizabeth, who received the island as part of her dowry when she married Prince Otto Windischgratz, who is concerned in the recent case.

The town of Ragusa has made an attempt to have the island transferred to the State, according to the Treaty of St. Germain. But Elizabeth, who is living divorced from her husband at Baden, near Vienna, asserts that she is no longer a member of the Hapsburg family, as she renounced all her rights on the occasion of her marriage. The claim by Ragusa was based on a precedence case heard in Czechoslovakia in which members of the Hapsburg family lost their property.

The claim was upheld and rejected successively by two courts, but before it had time to go through the highest courts, Elizabeth relinquished all her rights in the island for the sum of eleven million dinars, or about £25,000 which was paid by the State.

CAMERA NEWS.

Here's all that was left of a schoolroom at Donelson, Tennessee, where 25 children were injured, one seriously, when a terrific wind, hail and lightning storm struck the building, causing a part of it to collapse.

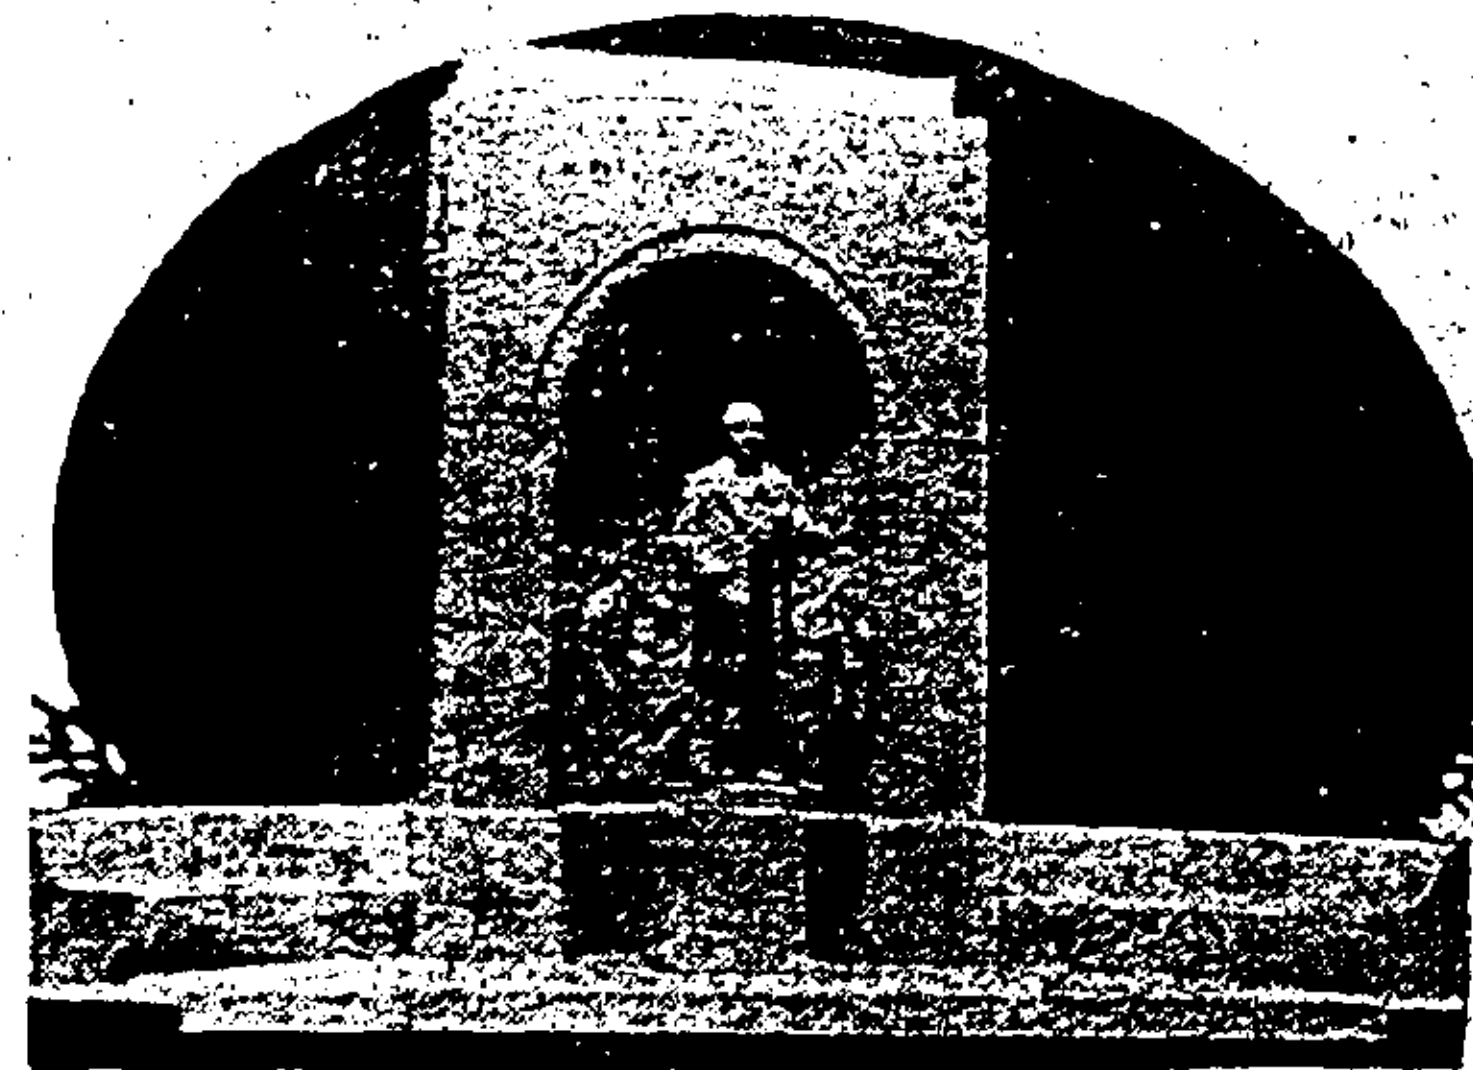

In a beauty contest, all the passengers voted Mrs. Gisel Akown, this petite French girl, the best looking woman aboard a recent liner reaching New York.

Lucienne Nano (above) is shown in her quaint native costume. Announcement recently was made of her engagement to Don Juan Francisco de Gardenas, chamberlain to the King of Spain.

Jess Willard appears to be in fit condition to enter the ring again. Pushing a lawn mower at his training camp at Yonkers, helped him to reduce.

Mrs. Robert A. Allen, who with her husband, Major Allen, was taken captive by Chinese bandits, but she was among the first women released.

Dr. George E. Burgess, new chief of the U. S. Bureau of Standards.
